CLC Anglesea Weekend – November 10~12, 2023,

Theme: Discerning Paths for Hope

Grace: Lord, help us to go forth; show us the way.

The annual CLC weekend at Anglesea is a highlight of the CLC calendar.

Join us for contemplation, a walk with God in nature and knowing that hope is an act of the presence of God, we ask for insight into how we go forth encouraged by the fruits of the World Assembly.

The weekend is open to CLC members, people curious about CLC, and family and friends.

It is a fantastic chance to learn more about CLC and to meet 'CLCers' in an informal and relaxed environment by the sea.

REGISTRATION FORMS WILL BE SENT TO ALL MEMBERS IN THE NEXT COUPLE OF DAY

Jesuit and Ignatian
Spirituality

The Jesuits have all sorts of online and in-person retreats available. Some CLC members appreciate regular email updates. You can check out some of their offerings to deepen your spirituality here.

CLC's Daily Prayer Invitation

Michael Hansen SJ has developed a program, 'Glimmers of Grace' - The Heart of Mary through the Heart of Ignatius, with a daily reflection on Mary for October.

An image and prayer will be sent to you each day if you register. This everyday offering is free of any cost, but there is an optional gift for the Jesuit work at the time of registration here.

More snippets

CLC allows breaking open the word of God, deepening spirituality, belonging, fellowship, purpose, listening, discerning, sharing, respect and understanding.

It gives a shared vision, freedom to speak the truth with confidence and an awareness of looking out to the community and creation—better informed and social justice.
